PORTEOUS & MITCHELL CLERKS.

Company Entertains Them and Their Friends at Dance in Wauregan House —Refreshments Served.

What proved to be the most enjoyable of the several annual dances given by the Porteous & Mitchell company, was that held at the Wauregan house on Thursday evening, when about 160 were in attendance. Each clerk had the privilege of inviting a friend, and the gathering was a decidedly congenial one and all had a delightful evening. The dining room was used for the dancing, Miller's orchestra occupying the alcove, while about the room were palms, ferns and potted plants.

The grand march, at 8 o'clock, was led by Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Wolf, with John M. Lee and Miss Kittie Lee as second couple. Archibald Mitchell, Jr., and Miss Harriet C. Frisbie, third, and Louis R. Porteous and Miss Jessie Hilltop fourth couple.

The guests of honor included Charles Franklin, Grand Rapids; Max Cohen, ceremonies, and he saw that every-had a good time. The floor committee included Fred A. Sudlow, Thomas Galligan, Archibald E. Mitchell and Archibald Mitchell, 4th.

At 11 o'clock the following menu

Finger Rolls
French Cream in Meringue Shells
Fancy Cake
Coffee
Chocolate
Lemonade

programme and many encores were demanded. The successful affair was one of great pleasure for the employees, who will long remember it.

CLEARING UP RUINS.

Reid & Hughes Co. State Insurance Has Been Adjusted—Hustling the Work.

Thursday evening the Reid & Hughes Co. posted a sign in their main street window that their insurance had been adjusted and that announcements would shortly appear in the local papers about their arrangements for rebuilding the store. The losses by the fire, which destroyed the store, the losses by J. C. McPherson, the hatter, Major H. J. Steiner, the drug-ist, and the Chelsea bank building, the only ones of the large losses by the fire, all have a good time. The floor committee included Fred A. Sudlow, Thom-
Archibald Mitchell, 4th.

There was a big hole made in the ruins of the Placid Co. building on Thursday, when many men were at work taking out the debris and carting away the material. As soon as the plot of ground can be cleared up the work of putting up the six-story building will be started.
While this will be six stories it will not exceed in height the five-story Shannon building as the floors are to be ten feet between joints, while in the Shannon building they are twelve, an extra floor being gained thereby.
The derrick was not erected on the Shannon plot Thursday, but is in position to be raised when ready. There was a portion of the east wall which was pulled over on Thursday.

Your Throat

is one of the most delicate parts of the body and should be carefully guarded and cared for especially at this time of the year.

You ought to stop a sore throat just as soon as you get it, and in this way prevent the development of some serious throat or lung trouble.

The best thing to do is to use SMITH'S THROAT LOZENGES in all cases of throat soreness, hoarseness, dryness of the throat or inflammation of the air passages.

These Lozenges ease the tickle, stop the inflammation, soothe the tender tissues, clear the voice and give relief at once. Positively the best remedy we know of.

Price 15 cents.

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE

Verdict of Jury in the Jurasz Case Given After Three Hours and Half Deliberation—Prisoner and His Wife Burst Into Tears—Sentence Deferred—Three Cases Remain this Term.

"Guilty of murder in the second degree," was the verdict given by the jury in the case against John Jurasz in the superior court at 5.10 o'clock Thursday afternoon, through Foreman Orlando C. Tucker. The jury had deliberated on the case since 1.35 o'clock.
On the first ballot it is stated the jury stood eleven to one for the second degree verdict, and that the entire time was required to win over one juror.
Sentence was deferred until Saturday.
The jury was adjourned until then, and Both Jurasz and his wife were in tears after learning the verdict.

When court came in at 9.50 o'clock Thursday morning, Attorney Lawless completed his argument, and was followed by Attorney R. P. Freeman, who finished at 11.30, after which State Attorney Hull made the closing argument, closing at 12.40. At 12.42 Judge Wheeler began his charge, which occurred in 15 minutes, and at 1.35 the jury retired to consider the case.

The jury did not go out to dinner, it being provided by Sheriff Brown, who had a table spread in the jury room and an excellent dinner was served by the Wauregan house. The jury was from the jury until they rapped just before 5.10. In the meantime Jurasz and his wife carried on an interesting talk through the bars of the pen, he emphasizing and illustrating his statement with his hands, while they smiled and seemed happy together. Great was the contrast to the scene after the verdict.

Attorney Moved to Tears.

When the jury filed in and took their seats they were paled by Clerk Parsons, and Foreman Tucker said they had reached a verdict. "Do you find the prisoner at the bar guilty or not guilty?" asked the clerk, to which the foreman replied "Guilty," and at the suggestion of Judge Wheeler, "of murder in the second degree," was added by the foreman. The clerk was ordered to record the verdict. The prisoner was returned to the pen.

Mrs. Jurasz burst into tears upon being told what the verdict was, and with his eyes fastened upon her, Ju-rasz sat in the pen, knowing that he had probably been convicted, because of her sobs, but he had not understood the statement. Later, when he was asked by the interpreter if he understood the verdict, he said he did not.
The interpreter then told him that he had been found guilty of murder in the second degree. He went back to his seat, then bowed his head on his hands, covering his face with his hands, cried like a child, while his wife, some distance away, was unable to control herself and was taken from the room. Jurasz said afterwards that he understood the probable sentence that accompanied such a verdict.

There was a brief parting between Jurasz and his wife, a tearful one, and a sad one, which brought tears to the eyes of Attorney Lawless.

Jury Discharged.

Judge Wheeler stated to the jury that he realized the task it was to attend court held in the winter for country residents, with the many inconveniences and difficulties, and he felt they certainly deserved the thanks of the state for their attention and conduct, and he felt they were entitled to all, if not more, than the state provides. They were discharged and paid off by the clerk.

Court was adjourned to come in Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, there being no session today because of the civil business, there being a short calendar session at New London. On Saturday Jurasz will be brought into court to be sentenced, it having been deferred until that time at the request of the accused's counsel. It was not opposed by State's Attorney Hull. The attorneys for the accused talked of motions for a new trial and arrest of judgment.

Ridiz Matter to Be Disposed Of.

State's Attorney Hull stated that he was not certain what would be done in the case against Mike Ridiz, but he was of the opinion that he would not oppose his being given a chance to plead guilty to some smaller offense. The case against Tomlinson is also to be disposed of as yet. Mr. Hull does not want to carry the Ridiz case over to next term.

Two for Life.

The sentence of Jurasz, according to the verdict, will be life imprisonment, and with Bogardus there will be two convicted for life terms in the pen in Wehler-stad. Bogardus is proving a model prisoner at the jail, where he is at work at whatever he can get to do.
He is thoroughly delighted with his sentence, as he is said to be fully expected he would be hung. He intends to be a good prisoner, being thoroughly schooled in discipline, and by that gain all the favors coming his way.

SALARY INSTEAD OF FEES.

City Court Matters Before Judiciary Committee at Hartford.

Representative Henry W. Tibbitts appeared before the judiciary committee of the legislature at Hartford on Wednesday afternoon and spoke in favor of the appointment of Lucius Brown for judge and John H. Barnes for deputy judge of the city court of Norwich for a term of two years from next July.

No one appeared in opposition and no other names were presented for the positions.

The members of the judiciary committee suggested to Representative Tibbitts that in their opinion the office of prosecuting attorney should be paid by a fixed salary instead of fees as at present. They requested him to take the matter up with the Norwich city officials and confer with the judiciary committee at a later date, which he will do.

The bill introduced by Representative Tibbitts relating to the renting of property for the purposes of prostitution and gambling was before the judiciary committee Wednesday but was put off for another date for a hearing.

Superintendents Bishop and Stanton, Miss Spencer and others were in Hartford Wednesday on a hearing regarding teachers' pensions.

Electric Jumped the Track.

About 9.30 on Thursday evening a short car, southbound, in Franklin street jumped the track near the foot of Grove street, describing a curve, which it continued would have taken the car up Grove street hill. It was soon put back with no damage or injuries.

Colonial Club.

The Colonial club has had a handsome new sign placed on the front of their club house, on West Main street, which will direct strangers in the future to the West Side's most prominent club house.

Roosevelt and Hughes.

The President of the United States has invited the governor of New York to drop in at the White house pretty soon—as soon as he can do so conveniently—for a talk. There are persons who would be willing to pay a fancy price for a chance to eavesdrop when the talk comes off; but there's nothing doing for those persons.
